Diversity Education Drama: Taking Diversity Education to New Heights!
Location: Conference Room 4
Limited to 20 participants

Laura Gordon
Residence Coordinator
Kutztown University
Karolina Matynia
Residence Life Coordinator
Coordinator of International and Diversity Programs
Cedar Crest College

Seeking to rise to new heights with your diversity education initiatives? Come learn how Cedar Crest College has utilized FADED (Falcons Advocate Diversity Education Drama) in order to challenge students to attain new perspectives regarding diversity. Presenters will outline the FADED program, as well as the impact that it has had on campus. In addition, audience members will be asked to participate in various activities used by FADED members to heighten awareness and understanding.

Making Your Money Work for You
Location: Conference Room 6

Yannaick Ladson
William Paterson University

It's time to enjoy your hard earned money! Take this crash course in financial planning. No need for an extensive background in finance. Just bring an open mind. Learn how to minimize debt, budget, save, and prepare for home ownership.

New Professional Case Study
Location: Fort Henry Room

REC Committee

The New Professionals Case Study Competition is an annual conference event sponsored by the Recognition, Education and Connections (REC) Committee. It is an opportunity for new professionals to demonstrate their ability to respond to situations common in the field of Residence Life and Housing. Professionals with 3 years or less experience will be matching their wits and sharpening their Student Affairs knowledge as they problem solve a case study. Come learn from their wisdom and experience. Be a part of the audience and give us your feedback about how they did.

This session will have case study participants present their cases to a panel of judges.

30 Minute Program - 10:30 AM - 11:00 AM

Regional Entry-Level Institute (RELI)
Location: Meeting Room A

Joanne Goldwater
Assistant Dean for Residential Life
St. Mary's College of Maryland

Plans are underway for the eighth annual Regional Entry-Level Institute (RELI), to be hosted at in the NEACUHO region next June. RELI is a workshop designed for entry-level professionals in MACUHO and NEACUHO to learn about seven competencies needed to successfully move into mid-management positions. Participants have the opportunity to develop a mentoring relationship with one of the faculty members. This session will describe the Institute and the seven competencies.

30 Minute Program - 11:15 AM - 11:45 AM

National Housing Training Institute (N.H.T.I.)
Location: Meeting Room B

Michael Imperato
Associate Director of Residence Life
Regional Coordinator for Southeast PA
Gwynedd-Mercy College
Angela Jackson Powell
Area Director
Rider University

Are you interested in learning and developing new competencies designed to help you move up in the housing profession? Are you a young professional (at least two years of experience) who is not sure of your next step or a seasoned professional looking for an opportunity to teach and assist others in learning the ropes of being a CHO? If so, the National Housing Training Institute (NHTI) may be the professional opportunity for you! It's a great opportunity to interact with colleagues from across North America while networking with some of the most respected, highly knowledgeable professionals in the field. Join NHTI past participants as they share their experience in the Institute and the opportunities that NHTI can help you to create in your career.